KFOR SOLDIERS TRAIN VITINA KPC AND FIREFIGHTERS

CAMP BONDSTEEL, Kosovo – US KFOR soldiers from the Medical Platoon, 2-63 Armor Battalion trained 15 members of the Kosovo Protection Corps and four firefighters in Vitina, Feb. 10 on emergency medical response procedures.

The medical platoon, stationed at Camp Magrath, will continue teaching advanced first aid and response procedures for the next three Mondays.

“It is our pleasure to have more contact with KFOR. It’s a great benefit to practice skills and to see how capable we are,” said Firefighter Fadil Islami.

Spc. Thomas Kerns, a medic for 2-63 and one of the instructors, added that these are skills and techniques they will most likely use on the job.
