Injured Boy Found by U.S. KFOR Security

CAMP BONDSTEEL, Kosovo – A 9-year-old boy was hit by a vehicle at 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday night outside of Camp Bondsteel. The driver who struck the boy brought him to the gate and alerted a U.S. KFOR security officer to the incident.

The U.S. security officer immediately transported the boy to the Camp Bondsteel hospital. The boy was taken to emergency where he is being treated for his injuries. His parents were located and escorted to Camp Bondsteel. He is reported in stable condition.

The incident is under investigation by the Kosovo Police Service.
